

IN SOCIETY.

The marriage of Miss Margaretta Pressel and Lord Maidstone on next Wednesday, June 8, in London will be the first of a series of interest on that day in many New Yorks now there. It is to be a white wedding, relieved by some brilliant and lace and embroidery on the bride's attire.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall of 48 West 107th street will leave for Europe on Thursday. Miss Janet Fish, who will accompany them, will be absent all summer. Mr. and Mrs. McDougall Hawkes go on next Wednesday to England, as do Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scherer. Harry S. Black will leave on that day for his annual European trip. Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer, who for some little time have spent in their country home at Scarborough, Hudson, will sail for the other side next Saturday. Mrs. James P. Patterson and her son, James P. Silo, Jr., will leave on that day. They will return in October. After a brief stay in Dublin they will be the guests of James Moran and Mrs. Charles Clontarf, and will attend the Curragh races at Kildare. Afterward they will go on to London, Paris and Switzerland.

Miss Gertrude Terrell Rodine and Midshipman Frederick Howard Babcock, U. S. N., are to be married on next Wednesday in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Heavenly Rest, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Rodine.

One of the weddings for next Tuesday is that of Miss Eleanor Hoffman Rodewald and Gerald Moncrieff Livingston. The bride is a daughter of W. MacNeill Rodewald of 31 West Fifty-third street. She will be attended by the Misses Marie L. Rodewald, Abby Livingston, Angelica Brown, Rosamond Burr, Vera Onatvia, Marian Stoddard and Helen Farnsworth as maid of honor and bridesmaids. The ceremony will be performed in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street, by the Rev. Dr. Philip Shipman. Mr. Livingston is a son of Crawford Livingston of St. Paul, Minn. He will be assisted by Sydney Hutchinson of Philadelphia as best man, James Livingston of New York as groomsmen, and Edward Rodewald, Roscoe Newbert, W. Gouverneur and Theodore Griggs will be ushers.

Miss Mai Elmdorff Hackstaff will have no bridesmaids at her marriage to Dr. John B. Walker in St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, East Hampton, L. I., on Wednesday, June 22. Her sister, Miss Cary Hackstaff, will attend her as maid of honor. E. S. Sexton will be best man and Eugene A. H. Watson and Mrs. W. Schier Bryant and Myron P. Denton will be ushers. The Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity Church, will perform the ceremony and the bride will be given in marriage by her father, Charles L. Hackstaff. Afterward there will be a bridal breakfast for relatives and some friends at the Hackstaff summer cottage.

Mrs. John R. Drexel was the guest of Mr. Drexel's sister, Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, at her country place, Camp Hill, Pa., early in the week. From there Mrs. Drexel went to her Newport cottage, where she is now settled for the season. Her sister, Mrs. Richard Van Wyck, is with her. Mrs. Drexel is expected to do considerable entertaining, having been in the city for some time in this view. It is not yet certain whether Miss Alice Drexel will be one of the summer's debutantes at the resort.

The second matrimonial event of importance in Newport this season will be the marriage of Miss Julia Sands and Roland Dickson on Tuesday, June 21. The ceremony will be performed in Trinity Church. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Charles Taylor Dickson of Cincinnati. The bride is a daughter of the late Frederick P. Sands. The bride attended as a bridesmaid at the wedding of her sister, Austin Leeward Sands, and Miss Marianna Fullam on May 28, also in Trinity Church. The third marriage within a brief period in the Sands family will be that of Harold A. Sands, a cousin, and Miss Katherine H. Dana of New York, on Saturday, June 25, when both of the other couples will be present.

Cards are here for the wedding of Claude Marland Griffith of New York and Miss Lucy Fay at Christ Church, Fitchburg, Mass., next Wednesday. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Ella Mae Camp of San Francisco as maid of honor, and there will be no bridesmaids. Merle B. Griffith of Providence will assist his brother as best man and Edwin W. Andrews, Carlton van Volkenburg of New York, Prescott Warren, Edward M. Hallett and Francis W. Dana of New York, and Henry Patch of Fitchburg will be ushers. Mr. Griffith and his bride will pass the summer traveling on the Continent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Townsend Burden and the Misses Evelyn Burden and Gwendolyn Burden, who left during the week for Europe, will be away all summer. Miss Clara Fleitman left on the Mauretania Wednesday for Europe with friends. Her marriage with J. Blaine Ewing will take place in the autumn. Mrs. Charles H. Delms will pass the summer abroad with her sister, Mrs. Theodore A. Havemeyer, and the Delms cottage at Newport will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nast.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., has taken a cottage at Newport for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who are making their country place, Sandy Point, near Newport, their headquarters, are attending the various horse shows. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt will go to Newport this week, the children having been there for several days. They gave a dinner on Thursday night at their home, 677 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Vanderbilt, who left for Europe on Wednesday, is expected to return late in August and occupy The Breakers, her Newport residence. William K. Vanderbilt, who also attended to the other side on Wednesday, will attend the London horse show, which opens to-morrow and will be continued for a fortnight.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte I. Bennett and Alexander Forbes will take place next Thursday, June 9, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Morgan Grinnell, 38 East Fifth street.

There will be some New York guests at the wedding on next Wednesday of Miss Elizabeth Brownell Worthington and Lord John Marston of the United States Marine Corps at St. Anne's Church, Manhattan. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Worthington and the family connection in Maryland is large.

Carl von Holstein is here for a short time. Count de Saintes Croix, Count de Villeneuve Sombrault, and Baron de la Roche Montaigne returned from France.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Hull and Roy Peabody will take place next Wednesday at St. Anne's Church, Manhattan. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anderson of Boston and her sister, Mrs. Helen Hull, Eva Peabody and the bride's friends will be bridesmaids. The Rev. Dr. J. J. Will assist as best man, and Mr. J. G. Anderson, George Abbott of Brooklyn, Barrington Wright of Larchmont and George Kinsman of Bay Shore, L. I., will be ushers. Mr. Peabody is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Peabody of Brooklyn. He is in business with his father, who is a member of the firm of Spencer Trask & Co.

The marriage of Miss Frances Ives and Prof. John Erdine of Columbia University will take place on next Thursday in St. Luke's Chapel. Mrs. Thomas L. Clark, sister of the bride, will attend her as maid of honor. There will be no bridesmaids or ushers. Robert Erskine will assist his brother as best man. Afterward Mrs. Theodore M. Ives, the bride's mother, will give a breakfast at her home, 45 Fifth avenue, for relatives and intimate friends.

The marriage of Miss Rose Claire Jouvand, daughter of Mrs. Rose Jouvand of 201 West Eighty-fifth street, and Eugene Siebel will take place to-morrow at St. Anne's Church. The bride's sister, Miss Blanche Julien, the bride's niece, will attend her as maid of honor and Miss Siebel will assist her brother as best man. A bridal breakfast will follow the ceremony. Mr. Siebel is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

The musical programme will be elaborate at the wedding on Tuesday of Miss Evelyn Fish and John W. Du B. Gould in the Presbyterian church at Ewing, N. J. Bruno Hulan, a friend, will be at the organ. The Misses Susan M. L. Gould, a sister of the bridegroom, Marion Harris of New York and Maria Reilly of Philadelphia will be bridesmaids. Two little nieces, Evelyn Thurber and Louise Thurber, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Thurber of 104 East Thirty-ninth street, will be flower maidens. Francis Louis Gould will assist his brother as best man and Cecil B. Annette, Earl Barnes, Guy Carleton and S. Duncan Marshall, Jr., will be ushers. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fish.

Miss Fanny Lockett, daughter of James W. Lockett of Washington, and J. Vion Papin will be married next Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. J. Clifford Richardson, 750 West End avenue. The couple will make their home in St. Louis.

Marshall Orme Wilson, Jr., gave his bachelor dinner on Thursday night at Delmonico's. His guests included his brother, R. Thornton Wilson, and John Borland, Percy R. Pyne, 21, Myron Johnson, O'Donnell Iselin, Francis E. Storer, Albert Eugene Gallatin, who will assist him as best man and ushers at his marriage to Miss Alice Borland on next Wednesday in the Church of the Incarnation, Madison avenue and Fifty-fifth street. The Rev. Dr. William Mercer Grosvenor, the rector, will perform the ceremony. The bride will be attended by the Misses Gladys E. Louise Knowlton, Dagmar Wetmore and Eleanor Mortimer as bridesmaids. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Borland will give a reception at their home, 118 East Thirty-seventh street.

Pembroke Jones of New York will assist Judge Platt Dickinson Walker of Charlotte, N. C., at his marriage to Miss Alice Locke Mordecai on next Wednesday evening at St. Paul's Church, Newport News, Va. Judge Manning and Judge Brown, associates of Judge Walker in the Supreme Court of North Carolina; Thomas Settle of Asheville, N. C.; Charles Tillett of Charlotte, N. C.; John M. Walker of Baltimore, Herbert Mordecai of New Orleans and Walter Mordecai of New York will be ushers. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mordecai of New Orleans, will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Cecil L. Cornelius of Newport News. Mrs. John Herbert Claiborne of Lexington, N. C., as matrons of honor. The Misses Albert Davis of Wilmington, N. C.; Anne Preston Bridges of Asheville, N. C., and Lella Saunders of New Orleans will be bridesmaids. Annie Louise Manning of Durham, N. C., and Selie Cameron of Raleigh, N. C., will be flower maidens. A supper and big reception will follow the ceremony.

Miss Mabel Brady and Francis P. Garvan will be married on next Thursday in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Albany. The bride will be attended by Mrs. N. P. Brady as matron of honor and by the Misses Margaret Delahanty, Mary Tucker, Mary Hamilton and Rose Sloane as bridesmaids. Maria Farrel, Anne Gavitt and Betty Jackson will be flower maidens. John S. Garvan will assist his brother as best man, and Thomas P. Garvan, Robert J. Collier, James C. Brady, Victor Suto, James M. Waterbury, Jr., George Burton Taylor, Nicholas S. Brady and Samuel A. Clark will be ushers. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Anthony N. Brady, the bride's parents, will give a reception.

The date of the wedding of Miss Elizabeth B. Sanford and Henry Lawrence Bogert, Jr., is fixed for June 10 when the ceremony will be performed at noon at Trinity Church, Hewlett, L. I. The bride will be attended by the Misses Jessie Hazard, Susan Dresser, Sophie Wheeler and her sister, Miss Genevieve Sanford. Afterward the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, will give a breakfast at their country home at Lawrence. Mr. Bogert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lawrence Bogert.

One of the interesting weekend house parties is that of Miss Frances Grison at the Grison country place, Dolobean, Haverford, Pa. Her guests include Miss Maud Wetmore of Newport, the Misses Harriet Curtis, Mary Curtis, Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, Eleanor Allen and Mrs. Henry Sayall of Boston and Grace Sample of St. Louis, all contestants for the Huntington Valley championship.

The Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks, rector of Calvary Church, Fourth avenue and Twentieth street, will perform the ceremony when his third son, J. Lewis Parks, Jr., and Miss Louise Mosher Bentley are married in that edifice on June 18. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Maury Davis Bentley. There will be a breakfast after the service.

Miss Mary Farrington Pease and Archer W. Fitzgerald are to be married on next Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day Pease, 521 West Eighty-eighth street. The drawing room will be ornamented with a profusion of roses and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. A. E. Keigwin. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Laura A. Pease, as maid of honor, and Margaret Dittmar will be flower maiden. There will be no bridesmaids.

Lady Herbert will have a luncheon given for her on next Tuesday by her brother, William Gamwell, at the Squam Club, Providence, R. I. On Wednesday her sister, Mrs. T. Shaw Safe, gave a dinner for her at her Newport cottage.

Mrs. George R. Sheldon will leave for Europe on Tuesday, June 21, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Gertrude Sheldon, whose engagement to Samuel Stevens Sands, one of the sons of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt by the first of her three husbands, has been announced. The touseau will of course be secured in Paris and the wedding will take place in the autumn. Mr. Sands's only brother, the late G. Winthrop Sands, who lost his life in an automobile accident a couple of summers ago, left two little children. Otherwise his near relatives are his two half-sisters, the Misses Rutherford, Thers, and Mrs. J. H. Winthrop. The bride was an impression that the elder would make her social debut here last winter, but the event was postponed.

The wedding of Miss Mai Elmdorff Hackstaff and Dr. John B. Walker will take place on Wednesday afternoon, June 22, at St. Luke's Church, East Hampton, at 12:30 o'clock. Miss Hackstaff will be attended by her sister, Miss Cary Hackstaff, as maid of honor. There will be no bridesmaids. Lawrence E. Sexton will assist Dr. Walker as best man and Dr. W. Schier Bryant, Dr. Myron P. Denton and Eugene A. H. Watson will be ushers. The Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity Church, will perform the ceremony.

QUIET NAVAL WEDDING.

Lieut. R. H. Lake and Miss Wentz Meet in Philadelphia and marry.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Lieut. Robert Howard Lake, U. S. N., and Miss Virginia L. Wentz of Orange, N. J., were married at St. Clement's Protestant Episcopal Church this afternoon. There had been no announcement, but Miss Wentz's mother and brother were at the wedding, as was the bridegroom's brother, Capt. Oddie S. Lake of this city.

Lieut. Lake is stationed at Annapolis, where he has charge of the machinery in use at the Naval Academy. He had been engaged to Miss Wentz for several months. When they planned for their wedding they decided to avoid any fuss. Taking their families in the secret they arranged to meet here to-day. Lieut. Lake came up from Annapolis on the U. S. S. Maryland. Here they were joined by Capt. Lake, who lives in West Philadelphia. Miss Wentz, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charles Wentz, and her brother, Charles Wentz, came from Orange. The party met at the Bellevue-Stratford. They took motor cars and went to St. Clement's Church, where the Rev. C. S. Hutchinson performed the ceremony. Lieut. Shapely acted as best man. After the wedding they returned to the Bellevue-Stratford, where a breakfast was served. Lieut. Lake entered the navy six years ago, being named from civil life. After several cruises he was ordered to Annapolis.

James C. Church's Will.
The will of former Surrogate James C. Church of Brooklyn was yesterday offered for probate. The entire estate, which is believed to be large, is left to Jennie L. Church, the wife of the testator.

WEDDINGS.

Bird-Hitchcock.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., June 4.—St. Peter's Episcopal Church-by-the-Sea was the scene at 4 o'clock P. M. to-day of the marriage of Miss Olivia George Hitchcock, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, and Singleton Hinman Bird of New York City. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert Shipman, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York, and the Rev. Philip Maxwell Prescott of Washington and Narragansett.

The little church was filled with guests from the cottage colony, and a special car brought additional friends and relatives of the couple from New York. Miss Hitchcock was attended by Mrs. Albert John Akin as matron of honor and Miss Anne Meldrum Wall as the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Gertrude Riker, Leverich, Frances Cleveland Lamont of New York and Miss Mary Hamilton of Albany. E. Dimon Bird, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Howard S. Hitchcock, a brother of the bride; Maro W. MacLay, Jr., Lynford M. Dickinson, Walter N. St. John, Jr., and Frederick C. Letts, Jr., of Narragansett.

A reception followed the ceremony at Albewell, the summer home of the bride's parents on Ocean road. The bride is a well known member of the cottage colony at Narragansett and has frequently taken an active part in amateur theatricals for charity. Mr. Bird is a member of the Narragansett Yacht Club and resided in this city. He was graduated from Princeton University in 1908.

Vander Post-Billings.

Miss Blanche Pauline Billings and William Hasted Vander Post were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius E. G. Billings, Tryon Hall, Fort Washington road and West 196th street. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Billings of Chicago as maid of honor and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Post, Jr., was her brother's best man and Theron B. Strong, Wright Barclay, Jr., Henry R. Oakley, Charles E. Greenough, Douglas Green, Peter E. Farnum, Dongan de Poyster and Robert M. Billings were ushers. Mr. Vander Post is a son of Dr. and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Post. The bride wore a white satin costume trimmed with point lace and tulle and bordered with white lace and a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of lilies of the valley and white roses. A string of pearls presented by her father and a diamond cluster, the gift of the bridegroom, Miss Billings wore a pink satin gown with drapery of blue chiffon. Mr. and Mrs. Vander Post started in the late afternoon on their bridal trip. They will reside in East Fifty-fifth street.

Carpenter-Johnson.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 4.—Miss Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood Johnson, and Sidney Blecker Carpenter were married in Christ Church to-day by the Rev. Elsie B. Joyce. Miss Johnson was given in marriage by her father. Miss Helen Johnson, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Mr. Carpenter was attended by his brother, Charles J. Carpenter, Jr., as best man and the ushers were, R. L. Joyner of Louisville, Ky.; Antonio Lazo of New York; Edward M. Carpenter, Moncure Carpenter, brothers of the bridegroom; William Cary Nicholas and Henry D. L. Carpenter, cousins of Mr. Carpenter. Following the ceremony an informal reception was given at the Johnson home at 17 Union street. Because of the recent death of Robert Wood Johnson the wedding arrangements were greatly changed. Mr. Carpenter is a cousin of the late E. H. Harriman.

Morgan-Cowdin.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Cowdin and Charles Morgan, son of the late Charles Morgan, took place yesterday in St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square. The Rev. Dr. H. H. Brodhead, the rector, performed the ceremony at 12 o'clock and the bride was given in marriage by her father, John E. Cowdin, with whom she entered.

Wright-Weston.

Miss Louise Van Netie Weston, daughter of Mrs. Ednah Wells Weston, was married to Samuel Wright of Conshohocken, Pa., in the crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Canon Robert Kimbier. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. William Jordan Taylor of Cincinnati, and she was given away by her brother, Sydney Weston. After the ceremony there was a small reception at the bride's home, 195 Claremont avenue. Mr. Wright's best man was R. Franklin Tresson, and his ushers were Charles Norris Hambo of Morristown, J. Elwood Lee and Victor Mauch of Conshohocken, Jerry Baron of New York and Sydney Weston, brother of the bride.

Goddard-Benjamin.

The wedding of Miss Gladys Torrance Benjamin and Frederick Worth Goddard took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Park Benjamin, 270 West Seventy-third street. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Torrance, rector of All Angels' Church. Miss Dorothy Benjamin attended her sister as maid of honor and the flower girls were Mary McCall and Mary Elizabeth Goddard. Stuart Johnston was the best man. Only the relatives of the couple and a few friends were present at the ceremony.

Cozzens-Skelting.

STAMFORD, Conn., June 4.—Miss Carrie Hoyt Skelting, daughter of Mrs. Francis E. Skelting of Stamford, was married to William Cole Cozzens of Newport, R. I., in St. Andrew's Church this afternoon by the Rev. John D. Skene. Miss Skelting's attendants were Mrs. E. E. Howell, matron of honor, and Miss Gladys Ray, maid of honor. The best man was George Cozzens of Newport, a brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were Alfred S. Pitt, Charles A. Hately, Royal U. Lockwood of Stamford and Harold Peckham of Newport.

Robbins-Lamont Wedding Attendants.

At the wedding of Miss Frances Cleveland Lamont and Francis Le Baron Robbins, Jr., in Millbrook on Saturday, June 18, Miss Lamont will be attended by her sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Katherine Lamont, and by Miss Mary Alice Robbins of Greenfield, sister of the bridegroom. The best man will be Sherard Ashman Morgan of New York and the ushers are to be Henry Hopkins, Jr., Harold Morton Landon, cousin of Mr. Robbins; Arthur Newell Cowperthwaite, Floyd Reeves Sumner and Marshall Bartholomew, all of New York, and Prof. Lewis Perry of Williamstown, Mass. Miss Lamont and Mr. Robbins will be married by the Rev. Howard Chandler Robbins of Englewood, N. J., brother of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Charles Gilbert, rector of Grace Church, Millbrook. The wedding breakfast will be at Altamont, Mrs. Lamont's country place in Millbrook.

Services for Prison Ship Martyrs.

Memorial services will be held this afternoon at the tomb of the martyrs at Fort Greene under the direction of the Society of Old Brooklynites and the Veterans Association of the Fourteenth Regiment. The monument to Gen. Fowler, the war commander of the Fourteenth, on the green will also be decorated. Former Mayor David A. Boody will preside, and addresses will be made by Congressman John J. Fitzgerald, Felix G. Kerzan and Rufus L. Sewall. The oration will be delivered by J. Gratton McMahon.
